

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Boca Raton Housing Authority is pleased to announce that Online Applications to its Public Housing Waiting List will be taken on its Website www.bocahousing.org from 12:00 a.m. September 16th, 2020 through 11:59 p.m. September 18th, 2020. The applications will be entered into a Lottery system and drawn randomly by a computer-generated program.

The Lottery will open and be accessed ONLY through our Website: www.bocahousing.org.
In person applications will not be accepted!!!!

If you do not have access to the internet you can use your public library or check with local social service agencies (due to COVID-19 verify actual hours of operations) to see if they are permitting public access to their internet. NO walk-ins will be allowed under any circumstances.

In order to complete a lottery entry, you must have the social security number for each member of your household. A family consisting of 2 or more members and at least 1 member with eligible immigration status will be eligible to apply for prorated assistance.

When you complete your application to the Lottery you will receive a confirmation receipt with a number. Keep the receipt! It has a number indicating that your submission has been entered into the program.

The 300 applications will be randomly selected and placed on the Boca Raton Housing Authority's wait list. The Housing Authority will publish the receipt numbers of the 300 people in numerical order of the receipt numbers. This is not the order of the FINAL WAIT LIST. The people whose names are not selected will not otherwise be notified.
